10 Years of Research Translation & Impact

10 Years of Research Translation and Impact

Sydney Health Partners is accredited as an Advanced Health Research and Translation Centre by NHMRC. Governing Council established, chaired by Paul McClintock.

YEAR 2015

YEAR 2016

First Annual Forum held at the Westmead Health Precinct. Professor Don Nutbeam (on right) appointed Interim Executive Director.

SHP awarded $2.22m from the Medical Research Future Fund (MRFF). Professor Garry Jennings appointed Executive Director. SHP distributes $1.8M to 14 translational research projects across partnership.

YEAR 2017

YEAR 2018

Federal Health Minister Greg Hunt announces a further $6.1 million MRFF grant to SHP for Rapid Applied Research Translation projects. SHP distributes $3.4M to 22 translational projects from 2018-2022.

SHP forms strategic collaboration with Health Consumers NSW.

SHP holds first implementation science symposium, featuring keynote speaker, University of Michigan Professor Anne Sales.

SHP commences annual Implementation Science Masterclasses.

YEAR 2019

YEAR 2020

Professor Mary O'Kane AC becomes Independent Chair of SHP. Professor Don Nutbeam appointed new Executive Director.

SHP announces inaugural round of Implementation Science Pilot Grants.

SHP awards five Research Translation Fellowships to clinicians/health professional researchers.

SHP becomes host centre for the Australian Health Research Alliance. Professor Nutbeam chairs AHRA, providing leadership and advocacy for research translation at national level.

SHP receives $7 million from Cancer Institute NSW, establishes Sydney Cancer Partners under leadership of Professor Anna de Fazio.

YEAR 2021

YEAR 2021

Melanoma Institute Australia joins SHP

SHP establishes Research Development Committee and Consumer Advisory Panel (pictured) Board sub-committees.

10 Years of Research Translation & Impact (continued)

SHP appoints six Clinical Academic Groups and opens call for six more.

SHP announces three Co-leads to deliver the Implementation Science program.

Nepean Blue Mountains Local Health District joins SHP.

YEAR 2022

YEAR 2023

SHP launches Implementation Science Academy, announces 17 Fellows of the Academy.

SHP reaccredited by the NHMRC as a Research Translation Centre.

Inaugural workshop for clinical trials professional staff, Trials Without Tribulations, is a sellout.

SHP launches ReConX annual workshop to build relationships between researchers and consumers.

YEAR 2024

YEAR 2025

The Australian Government recognises SHP and 11 other accredited Research Translation Centres (RTCs) across Australia with a combined $12 million investment over two years.

Sydney Health Partners awarded more than $2 million by Equity Trustees. for translational research into Alzheimer's disease, Motor Neurone Disease and cancer.

Sydney Health Partners